

The business owner of a restaurant is obligated to draw up a plan to prevent the spread of coronavirus disease among customers.

This plan template has been drawn up in accordance with the Government Decree on temporarily restricting the operations of restaurants to prevent the spread of an infectious disease, issued under section 58 (a) of the Communicable Diseases Act. The restrictions laid down in the Decree do not apply to personnel restaurants or selling food or beverages for consumption elsewhere. The plan template does not replace the restaurant's other self-supervision plans.
